Chess Life, Here & There

The Monterey Peninsula Chess Club, Casa Alvarado Chess Center, and Monterey Recreation Department teamed up to put on the 7th Monterey International Open. Theodore Yudakufski, assisted by his wife Ruby, directed the 106-player event, which was topped by James H. McCormick with a perfect 5-0. Dennis Fritzinger and David Blohm followed at 4½-½. Winning top class prizes were Dr. Kent Bach (A), Marcos B. Costa (B), Barry G. Nelson (C), Randall Mullins (D), and Eleuterio Alsasua (Unrated). Among the special awards, A. Eydal won as Best Coffee Drinker and Larry White took the Special Queen En Prise Award. The five round Swiss was held June 26-27.

The 2nd San Bernardino Tornado, held on June 19, drew 16 players. Stephen J. Skrypzak, 4-0, won top honors, followed by Mark Saylor, Donald Cotton, and Gordon S. Barrett. Stephen J. Skrypzak directed for the San Bernardino Chess Club. Our report indicates that Skrypzak seems to play better when the work piles up. He publicized, set up, directed, and cleaned up after the tournament besides winning it.

In another over-100 tournament the Central California Chess Association drew 102 players to the San Jose Central YMCA for its Second Annual USCF Regional Class Tournament at San Jose on June 19-20. Dennis G. Fritzinger led a field of 12 Masters and Experts to win first prize with a 3-1 score. Walter T. Heaton took top A money with a perfect 4-0 score. In class B Elueterio Alsasua overran all opposition to win with a 4-0 also. Stewart E. Scott and John M. Watson, III, who hails from Guatemala City, tied for top C honors. Peter Freier won the D/E prize, held to only one draw. Martin E. Morrison and Elwin C. Meyers directed the tournament, co-sponsored by the San Jose Chess Club.

The West Covina Chess Club sponsored two tournaments recently. The Summer Sweepstakes Weekend Tournament was won by Donald Cotten with a 4½-½ score. Favorite Don Bicknell scored a respectable 4-1 to finish second. David C. Argall directed the 12-man event. In the Malcolm Memorial Amateur Ray Mendoza easily won first with a 5-0 score. Argall was second. Tied for first B were Jeff Birkel, David Sassoon, and William Smith. Allyn Bartholomew, Edwin DeLong, and Alfredo Hannenberg split the C prize; Jerry Payne and Paul Gibbs, the unrated prizes. The tournament, held at Mesa School, drew 35 and was directed by David C. Argall.

James H. McCormick netted top prize money in the Central California Chess Association's 2nd Annual USCF Regional Class Tournament at Berkeley, July 17-18. Again directed by Martin E. Morrison and Elwin C. Meyers, this 105-player event also awarded top A title to Steven

D. Cross, 1st B to Michael W. Tomey, 1st C to Barry G. Nelson and Martin L. Sullivan, and 1st D/E to Peter Freier and Joseph D. Wu. The Berkeley Chess Club is co-sponsored.

Seventy-six players turned out for the Phoenix Chess Club's Summer Rating Tournament to make it the largest rating tournament in the club's history. In the tournament, played July 23-26, Robert J. Rowley, II, led Section I, with Gene Lewter and Edward A. Garner taking the top B prize in that section. Joel H. Friedman won in Section II with a 4-0 score, which Raul M. Reveles also attained. Winning the C prize in the same section were Vernon L. Greer, Charles W. Thomas, Stephen C. Grout, Eugene M. Lamb, and Boyd Blagowsky. Stephen B. Read topped Section III. Paul L. Webb directed.

One of the most active prison chess clubs in the country is located in the state prison at Florence. The Rooks and Crooks Chess Club there is frequently visited by the Phoenix Chess Club for a variety of chess activities. In the Pinal County Championship for 1971, Lucian Hatfield, an outsider, wrested the title from insider Gilbert Moreno. 1970 Champion, on tie-breaks. Earl Wagner (A), Gilbert Moreno (B), F. T. Coleman (C), and John Yoder (D), and C. Forgan (Unrated) took class titles. Earl D. Wagner directed the eight-player tournament, held May 29-30.
